CECIL, THE REAL LION KING

1 x 60' / HD / National Geographic Wild, Curiosity Stream, KBS, SBS Aust., RTP, APT

The documentary tells the story of Cecil the lion, one of the biggest wild lions in Hwange Game Reserve, Zimbabwe, and his life before being tragically killed by hunters.

In the western reaches of Zimbabwe, beneath a canopy of mahogany and mopani trees, lies the country's largest national park — Hwange. Once the hunting grounds of warrior-king Mzilikazi, it has been a national park for nearly a century.

Famed for its elephant herds and dramatic landscapes, Hwange is also home to lions that have captured global attention. Among them was one magnificent male who rose to international fame — Cecil.

His tragic death at the hands of hunters sparked global outrage, but his life deserves to be remembered just as much. More than a symbol, Cecil was a warrior, a devoted father, and a loyal brother — a true king of the wild.

To let his story fade would be as heartbreaking as his end. Honoring his legacy keeps his spirit alive.

This is where our story begins...

THAILAND'S WILD CATS

1 x 60' / HD / National Geographic Wild, Curiosity Stream, KBS, RTP

One Forest. Four Cats. Countless Stories to tell. In one of the last truly wild corners of South East Asia a collection of secretive predators defend their last remaining stronghold.

Nestled along the boarder between Thailand and Myanmar, the mysterious jungles of Huai Kha Khaeng are home to some of the rarest wild cats on earth - the Clouded Leopard, The Asian Leopard, The Indian Fishing Cat and the Indo Chinese Tiger.

Territories intertwined and continuously shifting - it's a cat eat cat world out here - to thrive in these tangled lands these cats must cheat death on a daily basis. Enemies await at every turn but the rewards can be great for Thailand's Golden Cats.

VALLEY OF THE BEARS

1 x 60' / HD / TV3

Bear-human conflicts are rising globally, particularly in the stunning coastal valley of Bella Coola, British Columbia.

The region has one of the highest concentrations of bears and humans, leading to daily conflicts. With hunting grizzly bears prohibited and bear tourism surging, bears are losing their fear of humans. Low salmon numbers push them to forage in towns and break into homes for food.

Human-bear conflicts have intensified, resulting in injuries to locals and the destruction of bears. Local resident Jerry recounts fighting for survival after a grizzly attack, while Lawrence, a hunter and father of three, describes shooting a charging bear in self-defense after his daughter was mauled. Conservation activist Ken explains his move from the city to live closer to bears, and tourist guide Fraser advocates for electric fences to deter bears.

What has changed since bears were rarely seen? Through gripping characters and stunning wildlife cinematography, we delve into the experience of living alongside this unpredictable apex predator, blending fast-paced action with profound storytelling.

DEFENDERS OF THE WILD

S1-3: 37 x 30' / HD / EarthxTV, Curiosity Stream

GREENLAND

1 x 60' / 2 x 60' / HD / 4K / Arte, SBS

In this film, we explore Greenland. We travel to the northernmost natural human settlement on Earth...

Along the way, we will discover Greenland's secret history, and its 4,000 years of Inuit history and culture. We journey to an abandoned ghost town, a mining settlement frozen in time. We retrace the mysterious Franklin expedition that vanished amongst the ice. And we discover Greenland's spectacular wildlife and find out how climate change is affecting their behaviour, and for some, threatening their very survival.

RIVERWOODS

1 x 60' / 4K / HD / Channel 5, SBS, RAI

Narrated by Scottish Actor and Director Peter Eter Capaldi (Doctor Who, The Devil's Hour), Riverwoods explores the complex relationship between Scotland's Atlantic salmon and its natural woodlands.

Riverwoods is the story of a fish that lives in the forest — and in the soil that feeds it. And in the predators, scavengers, and even herbivores that roam it. Scotland's Atlantic salmon, the King of Fish, is a keystone species in a vast ecosystem. But centuries of woodland loss have altered rivers, and now this iconic creature faces its greatest threat yet.

SAVING GIANTS: MALELANE - ELEPHANT RESCUE

1 x 60' / HD

This documentary follows the heroic efforts of southern Africa's most exceptional conservationists as they battle against the odds to save the continent's most iconic animals.

Conservationists launch an emergency operation to save five elephants from being shot after they break out of their reserve and cross a national highway. The South African government faces the choice of moving the animals or killing them. Featuring wildlife transportation expert Kester Vickery and veterinarians Dr. Dave Cooper and Dr. Peter Rodgers, this documentary showcases a rapid elephant relocation.

WILD KINGDOMS

3 x 60' / HD / Sky UK

Vast landscapes are ruled by only those tenacious enough to have weathered the storms of nature's greatest tests.

Planet Earth hosts within it an array of different environments, each presenting its inhabitant with a unique set of challenges. These challenges weed out the weak and leave behind a subset of individuals who have adapted to become master specialists of their realms.

Let us take you on a journey through the lives of the creatures that inhabit the Wild Kingdoms of our world.

WILD DYNASTIES

3 x 60' / HD / Discovery Asia

In a world where the only certainty is uncertainty, successfully navigating the journey of life is reserved only for the elite.

HIDDEN SECRETS OF THE ADRIATIC

4 x 60' / 4K / Just Delivered!

Explore the Adriatic Sea's hidden history, revealing the tales of ancient civilizations and their enduring legacies across millennia.

The Adriatic is a sea that has been sailed upon since the dawn of history. Located in the heart of Europe, it has been a highway for civilizations and the centre of events that changed human history. In this four-part series, we explore the hidden secrets of the Adriatic and the stories of those who've called it home.

Throughout the centuries, kingdoms have risen and fallen on the shores of the Adriatic, but many have been forgotten or erased in history by conquerors. Civilizations have passed through this area, shaping the Adriatic's narrative. Recent archaeological finds are rewriting this story and revealing more diverse and interconnected history.

Follow us as we dive into the past, from the early humans and Neanderthals who once roamed these lands and left traces of the first culture with rock art and music; to the Bronze Age Hillforts and Sewn boats, and the times of the Illyrian Kingdoms. Their shipbuilding techniques and developed culture even shocked the Roman Empire. As we sail the Adriatic we follow the mythological journeys of the legendary Greek heroes, as well as pirates such as the famed Queen Teuta. We discover the real archaeology behind the tales through the story of one island, Vis, and the dramatic events of the two World Wars, as we dive into the deep secrets of how to rule this breath-taking sea, that remains inspiring to this day. Witness our journey as we uncover the Hidden Secrets of the Adriatic.

THE LOST SECRETS OF JESUS

1 x 60' / 4K / Just Delivered!

The Lost Secrets of Jesus takes you back two millennia to explore the history, context, and character of one of the most famous men of all time.

The Lost Secrets of Jesus is a groundbreaking documentary that peels back the layers of centuries-old tradition and artistic interpretation to reveal the real historical and archaeological evidence behind the life of Jesus. Taking viewers on a captivating journey from the ruins of Bethlehem to the heart of Roman politics, this special uncovers the lost cities, astonishing discoveries, and hidden truths that shaped the world of Jesus.

This is not a religious documentary; it's a deep dive into the historical context and tangible evidence of Jesus' time. Through expert insights and new findings, The Lost Secrets of Jesus challenges what we think we know, offering a fresh perspective on the man who changed the course of history.

By exploring the past, we gain a richer understanding of Jesus and the world he lived in, making this special an unforgettable exploration of one of history's most influential figures.

VIKINGS: 1000

1 x 60' / 4K / Just Delivered!

Vikings: 1000 will take viewers on an unforgettable journey – as we follow teams of front-line researchers and interdisciplinary scientists on a quest to unearth new discoveries about the Vikings, on the 1000th anniversary of their arrival in the New World.

The legends of the Vikings have been passed down orally and through medieval sagas – their image re-imagined by every generation since. But as more and more clues are revealed – shedding new light on their history, culture, and voyages – it's become increasingly clear the Vikings are NOT who we thought they were.

From the end of the 8th to the 11th century, a mass exodus of Scandinavians leaving their homelands to seek fortunes elsewhere changed the course of history forever. These strong sea-faring warriors – collectively known as “Vikings” or “Norsemen” – undertook large-scale raiding, colonizing, conquest, and trading adventures through Europe and beyond. For a long time, much of their history has been conjecture, hypothesis, and even fantasy – stories recorded long after the fact by contemporary historians and scribes.

Now, with exclusive access to ground-breaking archaeological excavations and new science, “Vikings: 1000” promises to uncover a new way of understanding the Vikings – from their genetic makeup and gender roles, to how they dealt with climate change and drought in their own changing world.

Even more important, what drove them to discover and explore new lands? The great mystery of their motivation lies at the heart of an ocean of mysteries about their rise and fall, their technologies and their knowledge – and the question, just how far into the New World did they go?

VIKING QUEST: AMERICA

6 x 60' / HD / History UK, SBS Aust., TFI, NRK, AMC

Prepare to set sail on an epic voyage through time and history with “Viking Quest: America.”

Delve into the modern adventure surrounding the Draken and explore the latest research on the Viking Age.

This series combines a first hand, real life adventure documenting this journey with all the new information scientists, archeologists, and researchers have discovered to form a new, more complete, picture of the Viking story that is more real, more relevant, and more recent than any ever told, including a recent, 1,000th anniversary transatlantic voyage along the historic Viking route to North America.

ROME: RISE OF EMPIRE

3 x 60' / HD / National Geographic, SBS Aust., RTP

Follow Darius Arya as he puts the ruins he tours into their historical and cultural contexts in this visually stunning series.

At its height, the Roman Empire extended over three continents and included a large fraction of the ancient world's population. From Spain to the Middle East from Sahara to the Balkans, Roman civilisation flourished, enhanced almost everywhere by architectural and artistic wonders – many of which still survive.

Join world-renowned archaeologist Darius Arya in Rome: Rise of Empire, a three-part series that takes viewers throughout the ancient Roman Empire, exploring history's most multicultural political entity.

AMERICA'S GREAT TRAILS

6 x 60' / HD / History UK, SBS Aust.

Join Emmy award-winning filmmaker Mick Davie on a breathtaking journey across six iconic American trails, uncovering hidden history, wildlife, and the profound culture of hiking

Hiking is not just a physical journey but, perhaps more important, an internal one.

Millions of travelers each year partake in this outdoor ritual on some level, whether for a day, a weekend, or many months, to immerse themselves in a special culture that has birthed unique traditions such as trail names, trail magic—receiving or giving small acts of kindness—and forging unforgettable bonds with kindred spirits along the way.

Mick will take you on an adventure through the rugged heart of the continent, revealing its most closely held secrets in three stunning episodes. We will learn about different terrains, climates, and a host of incredible wildlife.

America's Great Trails is a feast for your senses that can help you rediscover your connection to the natural world.

BRITAIN'S SECRET ISLAND

4 x 60' / HD / Sky History UK, PBS, TPBS, ARTE, AETN UK, SBS Aust., APT

The four-part documentary series explores the secret islands of the British Isles.

In this history, adventure and exploration series we travel around the UK in a historic sailing ship, visiting the secret islands of the British Isles, to discover the untold stories of the fascinating history, cultures and wildlife that they hold, including their links to Viking and Nordic heritage.

From 5000-year-old ruins to fascinating living cultures with Viking ancestry, which are found across the 6000 islands that form the United Kingdom, we unveil their mystery, natural history and archaeology.

THE CLIMATE RESTORERS

4 X 60' / HD / EarthxTV, SBS

This global documentary series The Climate Restorers shifts our perceptions of the future - the climate we could have, if only we choose to create it.

This positive series explores what is already being done in the field of climate restoration – restoring our climate to a state where all life can thrive. It meets some of the people involved - scientists, engineers and entrepreneurs - their visions and stories.

It examines four major nature-based technologies of carbon removal and methane oxidation which can make it happen. Finally, it also delves into the social and economic changes needed and outlines how we can accelerate safe technologies, restore ecosystems, shift mindsets, and stabilize our climate and planet to protect our future.

Narrated by American Emmy-winning actor, director and narrator Peter Coyote (E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, Erin Brockovich / The Roosevelts, The Vietnam War - Narrator)

REVERSING THE CLIMATE DISASTER

1 x 60' / HD / RTP, RTVE

Some say a carbon-neutral future is impossible. In this documentary, Reversing the Climate Disaster, we'll meet the innovators proving them wrong...

On our journey, we discover that it is not leaders within governments who are shaping the response to the climate crisis but innovators working hand-in-hand with big business. It is these creative minds who are transforming how we power our planet, transport our goods, and build our cities, while developing remarkable new ways to remove CO2 from our air.

We will meet the innovators and investors willing to take incredible risks to do incredible things, from harnessing the energy of a star while on Earth to building the largest sailing vessel in human history.

Along the way, we'll discover how, when you have enough smart people working on a problem, anything is possible. Even saving the planet.

#KIDSONTECH

1 x 60' / HD / AETN18 India, RTVE

#KidsOnTech is a film about kids and technology; a film about how the promise of technology is limiting children from developing the very skills they will need to engage in new technologies of the future.

Should we shield our children from it at all costs? Certainly not, nor could we if we tried. It's increasingly clear the problem isn't simply technology. However, access and full exposure to it are simply not as benign as perhaps we once thought. Nevertheless, our daily use and encounter with media and technology often reflects unseen values handed to us by tech developers that shape and encourage our behaviors (and our children's) on multiple levels.

ACCIDENTAL RENOVATORS

4 x 30' / HD / BBC ONE, SBS, TV2

Cal Hunter and Claire Segeren turn a fateful mistake into a project by sustainably renovating a derelict villa in Dunoon, defying advice to demolish it.

Three years ago, twenty-six-year-old Cal Hunter from Hull and twenty-four-year-old Claire Segeren from Toronto, Canada set out to buy a two-bedroom flat in Glasgow city centre at auction. In a fateful mistake that changed everything, Cal bid on the wrong unit and they ended up accidentally purchasing Jameswood Villa - a derelict property in need of total renovation in Dunoon, situated on the Cowal peninsula within a quiet, close-knit community.

With the property having been uninhabited for over thirty years and what remains of it being over 100 years old, it had been described by builders as "in a state of partial collapse". Advised to demolish Jameswood Villas the millennials ignored the experts and chose to sustainably bring it back to life instead. On a minimal budget and with the help of friends, family and the odd volunteer.

A GAME OF SECRETS

1 x 90' / 1 x 60' / HD / DR, NRK, SVT, YLE, Netflix, HBO Max

A young Portuguese man hacks the global football industry with the anonymous website, "Football Leaks", to expose its most nefarious characters, making himself the target of powerful agents.

An anonymous website called Football Leaks appears out of nowhere in 2015, announcing its mission in a brief manifesto - "This project aims to show the hidden side of football" - and over the next three years, the extremely profitable and highly questionable methods of football's superstars and middlemen uncovered by Football Leaks make global headlines.

To name just a few, Cristiano Ronaldo is convicted for tax fraud and Manchester City banned from the Champions League. Nélito Lucas, a top Portuguese agent in business with Kazakh oligarchs - and one of Football Leaks' main targets - receives an offer from a Russian hacker: Make a generous donation and the leaks of confidential documents and leaks will stop. After a high stakes meeting, police raid a scrappy Budapest apartment. Out walks a teenage-looking Portuguese named Rui Pinto in handcuffs, worn-out sneakers and a backpack full of hard drives.

THE MOLE: UNDERCOVER IN NORTH KOREA

1 x 120' / 2 x 60' / HD / BBC, DR, NRK, SVT

A real-life undercover thriller about two ordinary men who embark on an outrageously dangerous ten-year mission to penetrate the world's most secretive and brutal dictatorship: North Korea.

This is the story of "The Mole," an ordinary family man and a former chef from Denmark turned secret agent, and 'Mr. James,' a former jet-set cocaine pusher posing as a Scandinavian billionaire.

When Ulrich Larsen aka The Mole enters the international North Korean Friendship Association (KFA), he quickly jumps the organization's rank and becomes friendly with KFA's almighty President Alejandro Cao de Benós. When Cao de Benós tells The Mole that he is looking for possible investors into North Korea. The Mole introduces the mysterious "Mr. James" (played by Jim Latrache-Qvortrup), who pretends to be a possible investor. Cao de Benós gets all excited about Mr. James and the possibility of selling drugs and weapons from North Korea, so he arranges for The Mole and Mr. James to travel to North Korea.

Filmed in secrecy over a period of 10 years, THE MOLE is the most disturbing story of the 21st century and will make you wonder if the world will ever be the same again.

Across ten episodes of The Interrogation Room, a team of experts will analyse ten police interviews, in each of which the skilled work of detectives was key to cracking the case and securing a conviction.

Retired senior detectives from the US and the UK, forensic and criminal psychologists and body language experts will examine the original police footage of interrogations at the heart of each case, to reveal the 'tricks of the trade' used to extract a confession and the tell-tale signs that a suspect is lying.

US Version - The Interrogation Room presented by American Actress, producer and Television host Vivica A. Fox (Independence Day, Kill Bill)

UK Version - Secrets of The Interrogation Room presented by Robert Rinder (criminal barrister and television personality) and commissioned by Crime+ Investigation UK

KILLER CASES

3 x 60' / HD / MBC

Delve into some of history's most notorious unsolved crimes with our panel of experts who guide us through the evidence and shed new light on old mysteries...

Episodic Breakdown

Episode 1: The Ripper and the Romanovs

Episode 2: Black Dahlia and Zodiac Killer

Episode 3: Hollywood, Jesse James, and the Cannibal

In Killer Cases, a panel of experts walk you through the evidence of several cold cases, including infamous serial killings, Hollywood scandals, a royal assassination, and more.

With their combined expertise in history, chemistry, biology, and forensic anthropology, these experts grant you the opportunity to look at these events through the lenses of both history and contemporary science.

While thousands of crimes go unsolved every year and often fade quickly from the headlines, there are some cases that continue to fascinate us for decades or even centuries.

What is it about these cases - usually murders or mysterious deaths - that hold our interest? Why do professional and amateur investigators alike keep revisiting these grisly incidents?

SPIES: THE SECRET HISTORY OF ESPIONAGE

3 x 60' / HD / RTP, MBC

Discover the untold, thrilling stories of real-life spies, their covert methods, and secret technologies that outshine the myths of pop culture espionage.

Episodic Breakdown

Ep 1: Truth and Lies of Famous Spies

Ep 2: Femme Fatales & Secret Codes

Ep 3: World War II's Spy Games

The world of espionage is shrouded in mystery—even to those in it. And so much of what we think we know about spy craft is rooted in literature and film and drama. But even though the true nature of espionage is quite different, that doesn't mean history's real spies are any less heroic. Or fascinating.

In Spies: Secret History of Espionage go behind the shadows with a distinguished panel of historians—including a former intelligence case officer—in search of the secret meeting places, complex codes, stealth observations, and cutting-edge technologies spies have used throughout history.

Using historical visuals and captivating graphics, we cover topics ranging from spies in pop culture, the “femme fatale,” and the most effective secret agents in World War II. As you get to know real spies and their methods, you'll uncover how their work is much more fascinating than anything pop culture could dream up.

FRANS HALS: MASTER OF JOY

1 x 60' / HD / ARTE

This documentary explores how Frans Hals defied 17th-century Dutch norms by painting rare smiles, revealing the cultural significance of laughter in his time and its meaning for us today.

Together with Pulitzer Prize winner Benjamin Moser, writer Arthur Japin, art historians and such as Katja Kleinert (Gemäldegalerie) and Friso Lammertse (Rijksmuseum) and Mariggje Rikken (Frans Hals Museum), the internationally acclaimed artist Glenn Brown and philosopher Philipp Hübl, the film looks at the phenomenon of laughter in the art of Frans Hals – and its function in our lives.

Of all the artists who worked in the Netherlands in the 17th century, Frans Hals – along with Rembrandt and Vermeer – is the best known. Nevertheless, he never achieved the popularity of his two contemporaries. One of the reasons for this might have been that he did not paint history paintings but only portraits and that he usually did not show people – as was the fashion – in a serious manner.

Frans Hals' pictures are populated by figures who laugh heartily, grin, and can hardly hold themselves together for joy. Figures that at the same time are not consumed into caricature, like the bowling figures in Jan Steen's paintings, which served as a moral admonition to the lower classes: "You look so ugly when you laugh!" To Frans Hals' contemporaries, laughing seemed improper and was a sign that someone belonged to the lower class.

Art has long been seen as serious, with the belief that good art must come out of suffering. Rembrandt's gloomy paintings, depicting dark themes, reinforce this idea. Laughter, by contrast, has been rare in art. In modern life, however, smiling faces dominate, especially on social media, where happiness is almost obligatory. Yet, seriousness remains valued as a sign of respect and sovereignty. Society clearly defines when laughter is appropriate, but our bodies don't always follow these rules.

DAWN OF IMPRESSIONISM: PARIS 1874

1 x 90' / 1 x 60' / HD / Theatrical Release

This film revisits the extraordinary story of defiance and innovation. It brings the dawn of Impressionism to life through the words of those who were there.

The Impressionists are the most popular group in art history – millions flock every year to marvel at their masterpieces. But, to begin with, they were scorned, penniless outsiders. 1874 was the year that changed everything; the first Impressionists, "hungry for independence", broke the mould by holding their own exhibition outside official channels. Impressionism was born and the art world was changed forever.

What led to that first groundbreaking show 150 years ago? Who were the maverick personalities that wielded their brushes in such a radical and provocative way? The spectacular Musée d'Orsay exhibition brings fresh eyes to this extraordinary tale of passion and rebellion. The story is told not only by historians and curators, but in the words of those who witnessed the dawn of Impressionism: the artists, press and people of Paris, 1874.

Made in close collaboration with the Musée d'Orsay and National Gallery of Art, Washington D.C.

VAN GOGH:
POETS & LOVERS

1 x 90' / 1 x 60' / HD / Theatrical Release

This film explores Van Gogh's transformative years in southern France, revealing his creative process and the passions that fueled his masterpieces.

200 years after its opening and a century after acquiring its first Van Gogh works, the National Gallery is hosting the UK's biggest ever Van Gogh exhibition. Van Gogh is not only one of the most beloved artists of all time, but perhaps the most misunderstood.

This film is a chance to reexamine and better understand this iconic artist. Focusing on his unique creative process, Van Gogh: Poets & Lovers explores the artist's years in the south of France, where he revolutionised his style. Van Gogh became consumed with a passion for storytelling in his art, turning the world around him into vibrant, idealised spaces and symbolic characters.

VAN GOGH:
THE REAL STORY

3 x 60' / HD / SBS Aust. TVP

Van Gogh: The Real Story is an immersive journey through the world of Vincent van Gogh, filmed on location at historical sites in Europe and enriched by the voices of fellow Impressionists, as well as the music of his time.

What was the secret of Vincent van Gogh's amazing output—over 800 paintings, created in less than a decade? How did he arrive at such a deeply individual and expressive style of art? And did he truly mean to kill himself in a field outside the village of Auvers-sur-Oise, or was it merely a desperate cry for help?

Written and directed by Professor Jean-Pierre Isbouts, an art historian, best-selling author, and award-winning filmmaker, the three-episode series—featuring beautiful visuals and engaging storytelling—sets out to answer many urgent questions that remain unsolved to this day. Discover the secrets behind the life and work of one of the most recognized, yet misunderstood, artists of the modern world.

JOHN SINGER SARGENT - FASHION & SWAGGER

1 x 90' / 1 x 60' / HD / Theatrical Release

Step into the glittering world of fashion, scandal and shameless self-promotion that made John Singer Sargent the painter who defined an era.

John Singer Sargent is known as the greatest portrait artist of his era. What made his 'swagger' portraits remarkable was his power over his sitters, what they wore and how they were presented to the audience. Through interviews with curators, contemporary fashionistas and style influencers, Exhibition on Screen's film will examine how Sargent's unique practice has influenced modern art, culture and fashion.

Filmed at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, and Tate Britain, London, this exhibition highlights Sargent's skill in capturing personalities, power dynamics, and gender identities. Alongside 50 of his paintings are clothes and accessories worn by his sitters, immersing viewers in his world. Though his subjects were wealthy, Sargent's work transcends the social complexities of the early 20th century, revealing a deeper truth in each brushstroke.

The National Gallery of London is one of the world's greatest art galleries. It is full of masterpieces, an endless resource of history, an endless source of stories. But whose stories are told? Which art has the most impact and on whom? The power of great art lies in its ability to communicate with anyone, no matter their art historical knowledge, their background, their beliefs.

This film features voices of those connected to the National Gallery, from security guards to royalty. Claudia Winkleman, Michael Palin, Terry Gilliam, Jacqueline Wilson, and HRH Princess Eugenie share their personal links to the Gallery, each selecting a meaningful artwork. Through their stories, both famous masterpieces and hidden gems are revealed, offering a unique lens on the Gallery's 200-year history and its future.

KLIMT & THE KISS

1 x 90' / 1 x 60' / HD / Sky Arts

Discover the scandalous life and the rich tapestry of extraordinary influences behind one of the world's favourite paintings.

The Kiss by Gustav Klimt is one of the most recognised and reproduced paintings in the world. It is perhaps the most popular poster on student dorm walls from Beijing to Boston.

Painted in Vienna around 1908, the evocative image of an unknown embracing couple has captivated viewers with its mystery, sensuality and dazzling materials ever since it was created. But just what lies behind the appeal of the painting – and just who was the artist that created it?

Delving into the details of real gold, decorative designs, symbolism and simmering erotica, a close study of the painting takes us to the remarkable turn of the century Vienna when a new world was battling with the old.

Klimt was a titan of the Art Nouveau movement, creating decadent new worlds which merged tender sensuality, ancient mythology and radical modernity.

MARY CASSATT: PAINTING
THE MODERN WOMAN

1 x 90' / 1 x 60' / HD / Sky Arts

Discover the life and career of Mary Cassatt, the often-overlooked Impressionist who transformed the way women appeared in art.

Mary Cassatt made a career painting the lives of the women around her. Her radical images showed them as intellectual, curious and engaging, which was a major shift in the way women appeared in art.

Presenting her stunning prints, pastels, and paintings, this film introduces an often-overlooked Impressionist whose career was as contradictory as the women she painted. Though she depicted mothers and children, she never married or had children, and though classically trained, she joined the radical Impressionists, transforming the language of art.

The world's most eminent Cassatt curators and scholars help tell this riveting tale of great social and cultural change; a time when women were fighting for their rights and the language of art was completely re-written. Mary Cassatt and her modern women were at the heart of it all.

BLACK OUT: SNOW WHITE MUST DIE

16 x 60' / HD / MBC Korea, Hulu US, Netflix Asia

From the producer of Save Me (2017) & Signal (2016)

After serving ten years for a murder he has no memory of committing, a man embarks on a relentless quest to uncover the truth and clear his name.

Based on the world-wide best-selling novel "Snow White Must Die" by Nele Neuhaus.

Two high school girls, Boyoung and Daeun, have allegedly been brutally murdered inside a blood-splattered warehouse, but their bodies were never discovered. The only suspect, their smart, rich and popular classmate, Jungwoo, was heavily intoxicated at the time and remembers nothing of that night. Uncertain of his innocence, Jungwoo is convicted and sentenced to ten years in prison, despite the lack of concrete evidence.

Returning home to Mucheon Village at the age of 30, Jungwoo faces the villagers' contempt and suspicion, as nobody trusts anyone in this seemingly peaceful village. Tragedy strikes again when his mother dies in a mysterious accident, intensifying the already tense atmosphere. Soon after, Boyoung's skeletal remains are discovered, confirming Jungwoo's belief in his innocence.

Determined to uncover the truth, he dives into the hidden secrets of his hometown where everyone harbors a secret and trust is scarce. As he battles the villagers' hostility, he must unravel the dark truths his friends and neighbors are desperate to hide. Can Jungwoo expose the real killer and reclaim the decade stolen from him, or will the village's buried sins consume him?

CUTTING THE LINE

1x 90' / 1x 60' / 4K / In Production / 2025 Delivery

A kayaking tour guide and his family rescue entangled seals along Namibia's Skeleton Coast, evolving into a unique environmental organization tackling a global plastic crisis.

Cutting the Line follows the story of Naude Dreyer, a kayaking tour guide based in Walvis Bay, Namibia, who starts rescuing seals entangled in fishing line, packaging straps and other ocean pollution, ultimately saving them from an agonising death.

When his wife, Katja, discovers what he is doing, they start an environmental organisation to raise awareness about the devastating effect of plastic pollution by documenting the rescues and sharing them through social media.

The response they get from around the world is overwhelming and the organisation quickly evolves into a full-time operation. Despite this, the Dreyers are acutely aware that they face a daunting challenge, specifically the formidable threat posed by the world's reliance on plastic; the fishing industry; and the magnitude of the global plastic crisis. This is put into stark relief and illustrated by their successes and failures in the field, and the contrasting emotions the rescues bring out between hope and despair.

INVASION OF THE SUPERPIGS

1x 60' / 4K / In Production / 2026 Delivery

Destructive hybrid wild pigs are out of control in Canada. One man is on a mission to stop it

Canada's wild landscapes are under siege. Fast-spreading hybrid "superpigs" are wreaking havoc on ecosystems, farmlands, and wildlife - even in sub-zero temperatures. Now, they're poised to cross the border and invade the United States. Originally introduced as livestock, superpigs are a cross between wild boars and domestic pigs, this hybrid animal possesses the best qualities of each species: they're intelligent, vicious, and have supercharged reproductive abilities. Since 2001, wild pigs in Canada have increased from 0 to an estimated 62,000, spanning a range of over 750,000 kilometers. Male pigs roam in territories up to 300 square KM!

With exclusive access to feral pig expert Dr. Ryan Brook, we'll follow his mission deep into Canada's frozen wilderness, as he uses innovative scientific strategies to combat the explosive growth of these destructive swine - despite unsupportive governments unwilling to take the problem seriously.

KRUGER’S WILD KINGDOM

1× 60’ / 4K / In Production / 2025 Delivery

A breathtaking journey through Kruger’s rich wildlife, epic history and enduring legacy of conservation and resilience.

A Journey of Nature’s Grandeur

The Kruger National Park, spanning nearly 20,000 square kilometers in north-eastern South Africa, is a sanctuary of unparalleled biodiversity,

Established in 1926, it is home to 147 mammal species, over 500 bird species, and 125 reptiles across 14 eco-zones.

As Kruger nears its centenary, this documentary traces its history and the conservation triumphs that shaped it. We follow elephant herds safeguarding their young, lion prides reclaiming their dominance, and the elusive leopards navigating their secretive world. Wild dogs and cheetahs defy the odds, thriving against larger predators.

This is the untold story of Kruger - its resilience, power, and place as one of Earth’s most cherished wildlife sanctuaries.

MYSTERIES OF THE RED SEA

1 × 60’ / 4K / In Production / 2025 Delivery

This film aims to inspire a deeper appreciation, spark a sense of wonder and exploration, and foster a stronger commitment to protecting our oceans.

The Red Sea is one of the most unique bodies of water on the planet. It is a young sea, still actively forming, with some of the highest water temperatures and salinity levels in the world. Yet, this narrow strip of water boasts one of the most diverse marine ecosystems on Earth.

Despite its historical importance, the Red Sea remains one of the least explored and studied seas. This ground-breaking documentary undertakes an expedition that spans hundreds of hours, both underwater and above, to collect data and map its diverse surfaces and depths.

This film takes us on a journey to uncover its wonders, from resilient super corals and extreme deep-sea landscapes to the dedicated scientists studying and exploring this vibrant marine ecosystem.

British explorer Ash Dykes and his team battle the untamed jungles of Suriname in a daring adventure in one of the world's most remote wildernesses.

Nestled on the north coast of South America, Suriname is the world's greenest country. 94% of its land is dense jungle. It has the highest proportion of forest cover in the world.

For wildlife, it's a paradise; for humans, it's one of the most inhospitable places on earth. In this remarkable series, Welsh explorer Ash Dykes and a small team are flown into the far reaches of its interior – and left to make their escape.

The aim of the expedition is to shine a light on this remote corner of the world, by traversing its jungle, climbing its highest peaks and kayaking, from source to ocean, the the largely unnavigated Coppename River: a journey that would be another record-breaking achievement for Ash.

The forest here is a pristine environment that's over 50 million years old, but it's now under threat from both legal and illegal logging. For Ash and his team, though, the threat comes from the environment itself. Bullet ants and deadly snakes are never far away, and jaguars present an unfamiliar danger. Accidents and exhaustion and are constant risks, and with the perils of hunting and foraging for food, this leads to a terrifying yet exhilarating adventure.

ARABIA UNTAMED

2 x 60' / 1 x 90' / 4K / In Development

A bold new series exploring the wonders of nature in the land of legends.

Explore the natural history of the Arabian Peninsula and focus on captivating stories of survival and adaptation in the dry demanding 'Deserts & Mountains' and the teeming yet challenging 'Coastlands & Seas'.

Through extensive research, special access and skilful cinematography these stylish films delve into the unique wildlife that has evolved to survive in the demanding ecosystems of the Arabian Peninsula. Collaborating with local experts in Oman, UAE, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Bahrain and Kuwait, these visual journeys will entertain and inspire a global audience as well as influence a new generation keen to discover more about the conservation of Arabia's wildlife and natural heritage.

The Arabian Peninsula is way more than desert. It's home to a truly astonishing range of habitats: from rolling dunes to challenging rocky heights and even snow topped mountain ranges. From sandy foreshores, isolated islands and nutrient rich mudflats to lush mangroves, sea grass shallows and teeming coral seas.

By unpacking stories of survival in these inspiring locations, Arabia Untamed will deliver a fresh understanding of the region's wildlife and ecology.

BLIND NATURE

1 x 60' / 1 x 90' / 4K / In Development

The film follows Juan Pablo and his wife, the biologist Sara Colmenares, as they explore three extreme habitats—the dense Amazon jungle, the largest tropical wetland of the Pantanal, and the 13,000ft West Andes mountains of marallones in Colombia.

Blind Nature is a first-of-its-kind wildlife film.

We will take you into Juan Pablo's unique perspective, exploring the South American wilderness like never before, through a multi-sensory experience. Specialised camera and sound design techniques will draw our attention to a rich world of sounds, textures, smells, and sensations that reveal a hidden world beyond what the eye can see.

From the busy leaf-cutter ants to the mystical pink river dolphin, a natural harmony is revealed, subtly juxtaposed against the careless noise of man.

60' / 4K / In Development

Amidst the unforgiving extremes of the Kalahari, extraordinary creatures defy drought and desolation—battling for survival through cunning, resilience, and fierce rivalries in a land of contrasts.

Almost 1 million square kilometers of desolate landscape, devoid of surface water, and this year, rain.

Rain in the Kalahari is rare and unpredictable, but this season's drought has a deadly grip. The land appears barren, lifeless—yet life endures. Look to the skies, dig into the sands, or scan the horizon long enough, and you'll find creatures defying the odds.

This adventurous tale follows the Kalahari's survivors—masters of resilience, navigating love, war, and betrayal. From aerial heists to subterranean turf wars, life here is a daily battle.

Set against a land of extremes—where drought turns to floods in the biggest desert deluge of the century—this is the Kalahari as you've never seen it before.

SECRET CREATURES OF THE SWAMPS
60' / 4K / In Development

The Okavango Delta-often called the “Jewel of Africa”— is a sprawling, dense and lush mosaic of waterways, islands, and floodplains teeming with life, yet many of its most extraordinary inhabitants and untold tales remain hidden from view.

Secret Creatures of the Swamps exploits our exclusive access to film in Jao, the heart of these dense waterways. Vegetation shifts from permanent swampo to dry land, creating varied habitats for wildlife. Here, predators hunt in the water, lechwe antelope pick their way through submerged grasses, and birds of prey dive on schooling barbel.

Across five distinct episodes, we weave together an immersive narrative of symbiosis, survival, and mystery—stories that will beguile and engage viewers—following everything from stealthy predators to elusive prey, from vibrant birdlife to secretive reptiles, offering an unfiltered, cinematic journey into one of the planet’s last great wetlands.

With each episode crafted to honor both scientific rigor and storytelling at heart, our series promises a close-up encounter with Delta’s untold wonders, brought to life with care, insight and awe.

MYSTERY OF THE ANCIENT STONE CIRCLES
4 x 60' / 4K / In Development

Join renowned historian Dr. Cyril Hromnik as he explores the ancient historical connection between Africa and India, unlocking the mystery of the stone circles.

Across Southern and Eastern Africa, tens of thousands of ancient stone circle structures, dating back thousands of years, can be found scattered throughout the countryside. But the question remains: who built these structures?

Some speculate that they were created by aliens who came to Earth to mine gold, while others suggest they were ancient homesteads constructed by local tribes. However, renowned historian Dr. Cyril Hromnik, with his deep knowledge of the Dravidian Hindu people, posits that they travelled from India to Africa around 2,000 years ago. According to him, these stone circles served as places of worship and observatories for tracking seasonal changes, utilizing their advanced celestial knowledge. Dr. Hromnik also demonstrates that their language has influenced the names of many places across Africa.

CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE

3 x 60' / 4K / In Development

As the global population surges, this series explores the complex infrastructure systems shaping our world, revealing how engineering, technology, and innovation ensure our survival and progress.

As the global population soars beyond the 8 billion mark, it has become increasingly important for the world's infrastructure to continuously scale upwards to meet everyday demands and improve on the quality of our existence.

The series explores these engines of society, highlighting their complexity, efficiency, and weaknesses, while providing real-world case studies to get a glimpse of how they intend change our lives forever.

Each episode takes viewers on a comprehensive look at a key sector, revealing the engineering, the technology, the people and the organizations that make it work with examples of instances where society became at risk of chaos and collapse.
